

East Harriet Farmstead Neighborhood
Crime, Safety, Transportation and Noise Committee
Minutes; October 17, 2011

Agenda:

1. Courtwatch: Mark Christopher Bell again was of special interest for aggressive pan handling and swindling. He was released on $2,000 bail and is out of jail. Mr. Bell and the other people of interest for the 5th precinct are on the link to the precincts website, under courtwatch.
2. The residents are once again being asked to;
 - a. Lock your doors
 - b. Get to know your neighbors
 - c. Do not be afraid to call 911
3. A person of interest was discussed last week. This person knocks on residents doors around the 38th and Aldrich area. The typical statement by this person is to ask for something simple, like toilet paper. 5th precinct CPS Amy Lavender has been notified as well as 911 calls to the police. This persons activities are of a questionable nature and are being looked into.
4. 5th Precinct Inspector Matt Clark and Sgt. Gary Manty attended the East Harriet annual meeting to meet and greet the residents. The residents had an opportunity to talk with the officers on issues important to them.
