

East Harriet Farmstead Neighborhood
Crime, Safety, Transportation and Noise Committee
Minutes; September 19, 2011

Agenda:

Courtwatch:

1. The courtwatch individuals were discussed. Of special interest is Mark Christopher Bell, who has several hundred aggressive panhandling claims against him. He is currently out of jail on a $25 bail. Bell has been on the tv and the Startribune. All courtwatch individuals are available for viewing from the link on the East Harriet CSTN page.
2. Over the past 2 months the 5th precinct has been inundated with burglaries. Most of these have been thefts from garages. Neighbors are yet again, reminded to lock their doors.
3. The best way to not get robbed is to follow the simple procedure:
  - a. Lock your doors
  - b. Get to know your neighbors
  - c. Do not be afraid to call 911

East Harriet Crime:

From August 16 through September 19, East Harriet had 4 crimes.

East Harriet had three theft from motor vehicles and one theft from a Laundromat.

New Business: There was no new business.